

Marc-André Comeau

Vice-President, Subsidiaries, Wealth Management and Executive Director, Acadia Life

Background

An accomplished leader, Marc-André Comeau's main focus is financial services. He is known for his open and unifying management style, inspiring his colleagues and employees to excel. He practices active listening, engaging people in meaningful conversation to get to the best solutions.

Mr. Comeau started his career in 1994 at Avco Financial Services as a Customer Service Agent. From 1995 to 2000, he held the position of Personal Finance Advisor at the Caisse populaire de Caraquet, which became UNI Financial Cooperation. From 2001 to 2006, he was Branch Manager at the National Bank of Canada in Shippagan.

Marc-André Comeau joined the Fédération des caisses populaires acadiennes, which became UNI Financial Cooperation, as Corporate Services Development Advisor in 2006. The following year, he worked as the Credit and Recovery Director and, in 2009, Personal Business Development Director. He recently held the position of Regional Vice-President and, in May 2017, he was appointed Vice-President, Personal Solutions. He is now Subsidiaries, Wealth Management and Executive Director, Acadia Life.

Throughout his career, Mr. Comeau served on several committees and boards of directors. Namely, he was Chairman of the Board of Directors of Productions Ode de la compagnie Viola Léger; member and Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Festival acadien de Caraquet for a total of six years; and member of the Board of Directors of the Centre culturel de Caraquet. Furthermore, Mr. Comeau was instructor, evaluator and trainer for the New Brunswick Lifesaving Society and a member of the Club Richelieu. He is now Vice President

Marc-André Comeau holds a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration, with a major in Accounting, from the Université de Moncton. Throughout the years, he completed many training courses including the Groupe CFC's Leadership Development Program and he received commercial credit certifications, a personal finances consultation diploma as well as a Mutual Fund Advisor diploma from the Canadian Bankers' Institute.

He is passionate about downhill skiing, boating, scuba-diving and swimming; activities he loves sharing with his family.
